Macedonia is already an apartheid state, in which the major ethnic groups live separate, but not equal, and this should be corrected. Otherwise, Macedonia will not survive as a sovereign state that can be integrated into the European Union.

In Macedonia, the deterioration of the political situation and relations between ethnic groups - in the only country in the Western Balkans where there is no single ethnic group has a majority - has become acute, however, the US government and the European Union are failing to solve the this growing crisis.

As EREA said Fouere, former EU Special Representative in Macedonia during the years 2005-2011, in his article dated March 23, 2015, Balkan Insight, entitled "Must Resign Gruevski and Make eay for Transition Process" (Gruevski should resign and pave the way for the transition process ", which I surrender to be documented as part of this session of Congress," the degree of alleged corruption and threatening actions by Prime Minister Nikola Gruevski and his party the ruling VMRO-DPMNE, has emerged thanks to shocking discoveries that are made available to the public by the Macedonian opposition leader Zoran Zaev about tapping vast operation that has led Gruevski.

In the end, nothing will be achieved in the Western Balkans without a strong involvement of the United States. The history of the region has shown that this is true. Regarding Kosovo, all EU members should recognize the independence of Kosovo and end the country's isolation by providing economic opportunity. Regarding Macedonia, Albanians should be treated as an equal partner in a new Constitution of this country that now is failing, or have to face the prospect of federalism, which would allow the Albanian people have administrative control, social and financial on their fate as part of a federation of Macedonian ethnic Macedonians and ethnic Albanians.
